

INTRODUCTION TO DEER STALKING

Give it a go, you know you want to, but don't know where to start! We have had requests from hunters looking for a day, where they will learn the basics of deer stalking. Not in a class room but actually outside. We supply everything that is required for you to experience what deer stalking/hunting is all about. The stalking ground is conveniently located in England, with a strong population of deer.

WHATS YOU GET :

- >All equipment including rifle, ammo, hunting land guide, etc.
- >In the morning we will go over some of the basic information for deer hunting, fire the rifle, get you used to it.
- >Afternoon/evening stalk on private ground, fingers crossed you will have a chance to harvest a deer.
- >£225 per person all in!
